

Pawnee Rock City Council Meeting Minutes

October 2, 2017

Roll Call Mayor, Linda McCowan-Waite; Council President, Deb Bader; Council Persons, Vickie Alsup and Paul Umble. Present. Council Persons, Chris Mead, Phyllis Agee and City Clerk, Cathy Grover. Absent.

Pledge of Allegiance led by the Mayor.

Mayor shared thank you card back from Toni and Rick Stimatz per Peace Lily Plant sent in Shane's memory from Council.

Council discussed letter received from Ted DeTello regarding his excessive water bill received on 9-5-2017. He had a plumber out to the school to try to locate any leaks in the school tunnels to no avail. City Maintenance helped him look outside for a water leak on the line leading into the school. No luck. Ted feels the water meter is in error and needs to be replaced. City will replace it as soon as a new one can be ordered and shipped. Council also agreed to allow Clerk to refigure the 9-5 water bill using the 6 months averaging policy. Ted had previously paid the excessive bill and account will be recredited.

Motion #1 Deb Bader motioned to change out the water meter at Praise Ranch, Paul Umble seconded. Carried 3-0.

Council is in concurrence to change the January Council meeting to January 8th, 2018.

Maintenance Report—currently working on the Generator Bldg, walls and rafters up. Water tower crew from Utility Service will be out tomorrow, October 3rd to start on cleanout and tornado repairs needed. Dixon mower has been repaired and is operable again.

Council person Phyllis Agee arrived @ 7:15 PM.

Monica Brackbill was present and asked about getting an extension for the tearing down of her tornado damaged house at 632 Santa Fe. Not a problem. Council will deal with it at the Jan 8 meeting.

Motion #2 Deb Bader motioned to adjourn the meeting. Phyllis Agee seconded. Carried 4-0.

Meeting Adjourned at 7:18 PM.
